

RSCDS South Wales Branch

Residential Dance Weekend Castle Hotel, Llandovery Friday 25th to Sunday 27th October 2019

For the 32nd year the South Wales Branch will be holding a residential dance weekend. This year we will again be returning to the Castle Hotel, Llandovery.

The weekend will follow the usual format, starting with dinner then a social dance on Friday evening dancing to CDs

Following breakfast on Saturday we welcome Janet Johnston from Edinburgh, who will take the morning class with music from Jim Proudfoot.

Janet has often taught at summer School and at numerous weekend schools around the UK and in Europe.

A finger buffet lunch will follow the Saturday morning session. The afternoon is free for you to explore the surrounding countryside. A formal dinner dance will take place in the evening.

Sunday morning will give a further opportunity to take part in a class with Janet. The weekend will finish with Sunday lunch in the hotel.

Do come and join us for a fun weekend of dancing with good food and friendly company. The Castle Hotel in Llandovery is an ideal centre for a wide range of leisure activities. Both the National Botanic Gardens of Wales and the walled gardens of Aberglasney are within easy reach. The area is particularly good for bird watchers and there are many interesting walks either along rivers or reservoir or for the more energetic, stiff hill climbs.

The cost of the weekend is a very reasonable £185 per person, payable to the hotel at the end of the weekend. There will also be an administration charge to cover the teaching and musician's costs of approximately £20 per person.

It is regretted there are a limited number of single rooms available in the hotel so please arrange to share where you can.

Shortly I will send out the menu selection and the programmes for Friday and Saturday evening dancing.

I look forward to seeing you there for an excellent Weekend in the Welsh Countryside.
