THE ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY

Exeter Branch

AFTERNOON SCHOOL & EVENING DANCE

Saturday 16th October 2021

THE VICTORY HALL, BROADCLYST, EXETER EX5 3DX

Class Teacher: Nicola Scott

Class Musician: George Roberts

Evening Dance Band: Celtic Capers

Nicola Scott, our teacher, first started dancing The Gay Gordons at the age of six at home in the kitchen, and has been hooked ever since! She continued Scottish dancing at university and with the Birmingham Branch from 2001. Having achieved the RSCDS Teaching Certificate in 2011, she has taught the RSCDS Birmingham weekly beginners and intermediate/advanced classes since 2012 and takes particular delight in seeing new dancers become confident and take joy in their dancing. Nicola is very much looking forward to bringing fun and enjoyment, as well as a little challenge to the Exeter Branch Afternoon School.

George Roberts, our musician, learned Scottish Country Dancing at the Saltash Club, where he has been a member since 1989. He is the leader of "Celtic Capers" a three-piece Scottish Country Dance Band formed in 2004, which performs mainly across Devon and Cornwall. As a solo accordionist, George also regularly plays for workshops and technique classes organised by RSCDS Cornwall Branch.
